JACKSONVILLE, ILLINOIS, WEDNESDAY MORNING, JULY 27, 1904.

AS SEEN BY WITNESSES

RUSSIANS AND JAPS IN FIERCE COMBAT

Details of the Fighting at Tachekian and Sisseyan—New Chwang Occupied—Vessels Captured.

KUROPATKIN'S REPORT.

St. Petersburg, July 26.—Kuropatkin reporting under July 25, sends details of fighting in the vicinity of Kai Chou on the 23d. The enemy concentrated its main body towards Datchapu, keeping his cavalry on the Russian left flank. The Russians evacuated the heights and withdrew the rear guard engaging the Japanese advance. At Datchapu Russian artillery fought a duel with the enemy. The Japanese advance began in the morning, but ceased at 4 in the afternoon. On the evening of the 23d the Russians bivouacked after leaving detachments in various fortified positions to guard against possible rear guard engagement.

Kuropatkin said the Russian losses of the day were not definitely ascertained, but were not considerable. At night fall the Russians reoccupied Tachuk. Early the next morning there was an exchange of shots with the enemy's outposts. Since then there has been no news from the Kai Chou side.

The morning of July 21 the Japanese occupied the height facing Pikan pass. The Russians occupied the pass and the following morning determined to occupy the southern slope of the hill. This was done. That afternoon Japanese turned the Russian left and began to turn the right wing. Russian reinforcements were sent up and checked the Japanese, but the latter receiving heavy reinforcements turned both Russian flanks. The Russians retired slowly. The enemy ceased the attack after occupying Pikan pass. The Russians had one captain and forty-nine men wounded, but the number of killed is not known.

July 21 the enemy resumed activity on the south front and a fight began on the left flank with a fusillade from outposts near Tachuk. For twelve hours the enemy maintained a heavy and uninterrupted artillery fire. The artillery duel went in the Russian favor. Japanese batteries operating against the village of Tachuk and Tachuk were silenced by four in the afternoon. Simultaneously with the artillery cannonade the enemy made a vigorous attack in the direction of Datchapung with the object of breaking the Russian center, but were defeated. The battle ended at 9:30 that night. The extent of the Russian loss is not available.

"The commander of our troops," says Kuropatkin, "who had sustained the enemy's attack for two days and repelled them, after giving his men some rest, began to retire to the north without being molested by the enemy."

ADDITIONAL DETAILS.

Liao Yang, July 26.—The following additional details have been obtained from eyewitnesses of the fight at Sisseyan, where the Japanese (Salmatza) column was engaged against General Hersehelmann's newly arrived European troops. Japanese began the attack on Sisseyan during the afternoon of July 17, with a bombardment lasting till night fall. The Russian garrison moved out on the Japanese flank with field artillery and mountain battery. The attack was resumed at 4:30 in the morning with a duel, which lasted four hours, during which the Russian batteries discharged twenty tons of projectiles. A frontal attack developed at nine in the morning. Meanwhile a Japanese battalion tried to ford the river and turn the Russian right. Reserves were hurried up and arrested this attempt to flank the Russian force. The Japanese then sent another column, which charged resolutely in the direction of the Russian trenches, but the Japanese were unable to approach nearer than 600 paces. The Japanese flanking column reappeared at this juncture over the hills on the Russian right and small flanking detachments were discovered on the Russian left. The Russian commander thereupon realized that the Japanese were too strong. They were seen to have more than a division of twenty-four guns and two mounted batteries. Consequently Hersehelmann ordered a retreat. The guns had scarcely been removed from the heights when Japanese infantry climbed up and poured a hot fire on the retreating Russians.

WAR REPORTS.

Tien Tsin, July 26.—Lloyd's agents at New Chwang wire that fifty Japanese cavalrymen have entered New Chwang. The French flag is flying from all Russian buildings and the town is quiet.

Mukden, July 26.—The latest reports state that Russians with about one hundred guns in action at Tachekiao inflicted serious losses on Japanese and destroyed many of their guns. The Japanese attack on the centre Russian position was repulsed, but the Russians were ordered to retire yesterday and occupy heights five miles north of Tachekiao. This movement was carried out in good order. The empress' hospital train passed here yesterday bearing 314 men wounded in

SUNDAY ENGAGEMENT AT TACHEKIAO.

St. Petersburg, July 26.—The official messenger this morning prints a dispatch from Liao dated July 25, announcing Japanese maintained a terrific bombardment at Tachekiao throughout the day, but that toward evening several of their batteries having been silenced by Russian guns they retired.

St. Petersburg, July 26.—The port of New Chwang has been abandoned by Russians. The evacuation of New Chwang proper is expected to follow shortly.

Dispatches just received by the war department announce Russians have retreated to Hatchingaid.

Suez, July 26.—The Peninsular and Oriental Steamship company's steamer Formosa has just arrived here flying the Russian naval flag and with prize crew on board. She was captured in the Red sea.

Tien Tsin, July 26.—It is reported heavy fighting has occurred between Liao Yang and Mukden.

Liverpool, July 26.—Owners of the British steamer Calchas from Puget Sound to Japan, received a telegram to day from Hong Kong reporting the vessel was seized by the Vladivostok squadron.

Mukden, July 26.—Twenty troop laden transports, escorted by a Japanese squadron, are cruising off the entrance of the Liao river.

London, July 26.—The sinking of the steamer Knight Commander by Russian cruisers off Japan was fully discussed at a meeting of the cabinet to day. The Knight Commander incident is attracting close official and public interest. Premier Balfour in commons to day said the subject of sinking the Knight Commander is being inquired into, but he is not in position to make a statement.

The premier said the government was not aware of any convention between Turkey and Russia providing special conditions for passage of the Dardanelles by special Russian ships.

Berlin, July 26.—The correspondent of the Local Anzeiger, who was an eyewitness of the fighting near Tachekiao, telegraphs from Liao Yang under to day's date that the Japanese unexpectedly opened the cannonade on the evening of July 23 and adds that the artillery battle was continued Sunday and lasted fourteen hours. Russian batteries, continued the correspondent, were served better than the Japanese. The Russians made a fierce bayonet attack and retained the position at night fall, but were unexpectedly ordered to retire during the night.

On the morning of July 25 they evacuated the railroad station at Tachekiao, carrying off movable and burning the bulk of their supplies. When the correspondent left Tachekiao at ten in the morning the Russian rear guard was still holding Tachekiao.

London, July 27.—Special dispatches from the far east printed this morning (Wednesday) confirm the news of Japanese occupation of New Chwang, but do not give any details of the fighting. According to the Standard's Tien Tsin correspondent a foreigner who has arrived from Mukden describes the conditions in the Russian camp as deplorable.

TAKING ACTION.

London, July 26.—The British government is taking energetic action in the case of the sinking of the Knight Commander. All information received tends to establish in the official mind a belief that an outrage has been committed for which no excuse exists in international law. Those aware of the feeling in the ministry said to night at members of the cabinet are in accord regarding the principle of the inviolability of innocent neutral shipping, as well as upon the principle a ship cannot be destroyed even if carrying contraband of war. Demands which will be made upon the Russian government will include compensation to owners of the ship and owners of goods on board an apology for the action of the Russian cruisers, and agreement instructions be given which will prevent a repetition of such action. Arthur Cohen, one of the counsel for the British government in the Alabama claims arbitration case, and now standing counsel for the University of Cambridge, said to the Associated Press to night that the sinking of the Knight Commander was wholly illegal and cited international law to support his contention. He said:

"It seems to me to be time for the United States and Great Britain to say that they will not allow this violation of rules relating to contraband of war or this extraordinary interference with neutral commerce."

Paris, July 26.—The Yinkow correspondent of the Matin says Japanese entered New Chwang at 5 o'clock in the morning and hauled down the Russian commercial flag, which was substituted for the military standard on the residence of the governor. The Japanese standard was hoisted.

FAIR ADMITS CHILDREN FREE.

St. Louis, July 26.—The world's fair board of admission has decided that hereafter all children under 12 years of age, accompanied by parents, will be admitted to the fair free of charge.

FARM HANDS GO ON STRIKE.

Chillicothe, Mo., July 26.—The harvest hands in the western part of Livingston county have gone on a strike, demanding that their pay be raised from $1.25 to $1.50 a day, with board. Farmers who use the hands in their hay fields declare that they will not pay the advance.

RIOT CALLS IN ORDER

PACKING HOUSE STRIKERS ARE VIOLENT

The Situation at the Chicago Plants Unchanged—Waitress Girls Strike—The Trouble at Other Places.

Chicago, July 26.—Little if any advantage was gained by either side in the strike to day and there is no hope to night of immediate settlement. Realizing they have one of the hardest propositions to contend with in the history of the packing industry the packers are leaving nothing undone to gain the upper hand in the struggle with their 30,000 union employees.

All day long workmen from outside plants were rushed to Chicago and taken to the stock yards under police protection. To night it was announced by the packers that 7,000 men were installed in the different plants. With these and new arrivals expected each way the packers expect to get their affairs in such shape the strikers will be compelled to seek a peaceable adjustment at the dictation of the employers.

With all union workmen out except the teamsters, the only addition to the ranks of the strikers were about a hundred teamsters who quit work as individuals, preferring to do this rather than wait for the official order to walk out, and the waitresses in restaurants at the stock yards controlled by the packing companies.

When questioned regarding the situation to night, President Donnelly said: "I have no hope of an immediate settlement. The fight is on and the only thing we can do now is to stick to the end."

The union recalled the ultimatum issued yesterday prohibiting unionists employed in independent plants from killing live-stock purchased in the stock yards, where animals are being handled by non-union men. Labor leaders took this step after the independent packers had pointed out to them that if such an order was carried out it would benefit the big packers.

FRIGHTENED STRIKE BREAKERS. Shooting wildly in the darkness a score of panic stricken colored strike breakers hired by Swift & Co., spread consternation through the yards to day. Riot calls were sent to police and the armed garrison of Packingtown turned out in full force. Failing to discover any strikers police arrested a dozen armed strike breakers.

John Mulloy, a strike breaker, was assaulted by three men at 41st and Halsted streets this morning. He was knocked down and nearly killed. The sluggers had not completed their work when five policemen interfered. After an exciting chase through the crowd, which numbered nearly two thousand assembled in the streets and alleys in the vicinity of the assault, in which officers fired many shots, one of Mulloy's assailants, John Dooley, was arrested. The others escaped.

WAITRESSES STRIKE.

Eighty waitresses employed in Armour's Swift's and Morris' restaurants, quit work to day because of the employment of colored cooks. The girls' places were immediately filled by colored men.

All packing plants were declared to be in nearly full operation to day. Nearly every man who quit yesterday day was claimed has been replaced by non-union workmen. According to the packers 600 non-union men from other cities arrived at the yards to day and were distributed among various plants.

VOLUNTEER CREWS.

Men with Panama hats, expensive clothing and fine linen took charge of unloading to day's arrivals at the yards. They were made up of clerical forces of various commission houses, and while they tolled among the running swine strikers in heavy boots and rough garb stood about making derisive remarks and poking fun at the volunteer crews.

NEGROES ATTACKED.

Union men and their friends have become so embittered against colored strike breakers that the appearance of a negro in the vicinity of the stock yards is almost certain to be followed by violence. A negro barber about to climb upon a street car at the entrance of the stock yards to night was dragged to the street by a mob and beaten until unconscious. When police arrived they pronounced the colored man dead, but he was revived by physicians and will recover. The mob was under the impression the barber was employed in the packing plants and without waiting to ask any questions attacked him before he could offer any explanation.

Lines of vigilant policemen guarded the entrances to the stock yards all day and night, but despite this precaution, disturbances were numerous and two of them ended with fatal results. While an attack was being made on some colored strike breakers as they were leaving the stock yards to night, John Stokes, one of the strikers, was shot and fatally wounded by one of the negroes; Stokes, together with fully one hundred companions, it is said, rushed on the negroes and one of them drew a revolver and fired it to the crowd, hitting Stokes. Police succeeded in scattering the rioters after considerable difficulty.

THOS. TAGGART IS CHOSEN

CHAIRMAN OF THE DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE

Little Opposition as to His Selection—The Gorman Faction Powerless—Will Manage the Campaign.

New York, July 26.—Expectations were fulfilled to day when Thomas Taggart, of Indiana, was elected chairman of the Democratic national committee. Endorsed by nearly every member of the committee the day after the convention adjourned at St. Louis, it has been known ever since that only the decree of Judge Parker in favor of one other man or consent of Gorman to accept the place could prevent the selection of Taggart. Neither of these contingencies arose and the Indiana man was unanimously chosen to the place for which he long has had aspirations. Although the vote was unanimous, it was not until it was actually in progress that the opposition to Taggart's selection was withdrawn. Beginning with a return to Gorman, former Senator Hill, Jones and other Democratic leaders from Missouri last evening, and lasting up to the moment when the committee was called to order to day, the strongest possible effort was made to bring Gorman into the field or arrange a combination that would place some one besides Taggart at the head of the committee. Almost continuous conferences were held, intimations of great financial advantages to the party were made and many expedients suggested, even to delaying the election until after the committee's visit to Parker to morrow, in order to defeat Taggart. But nothing could change the determination of his friends to force the election to day and compel a show of strength. Failing to secure the necessary conditions to defeat Taggart, the opposition yielded and the proceedings of the committee were brief and harmonious.

As soon as Taggart was elected the committee appointed for the purpose brought him before the committee.

Taggart thanked the committee for the honor it had paid him. He realized to the fullest extent, he said, the responsibilities of the position, but felt that with the ticket and the platform upon which the candidates stood the Democrats would win. In order to do so they must have the full and cordial support and cooperation of every member of the committee and every Democrat of the country. He promised to discharge the duties of the position faithfully and intelligently.

Homer S. Cummings, of Connecticut, then placed Urey Woodson, of Kentucky, in nomination for secretary, and C. S. Van Duzer, of Nevada, named C. S. Walsh, of Iowa. Seconding speeches were made by several members and then the roll call of the session followed. Woodson receiving 35 and Walsh 12. Woodson then named Edward Sexton of the District of Columbia, for assistant secretary and he was unanimously elected.

John I. Martin, of Missouri, was elected sergeant at arms and Samuel Dunsen assistant.

The most important action of the committee aside from the selection of the chairman was arranging a committee to manage the campaign. The proposition submitted by William F. Sheehan, slight, modified upon the suggestion of Senator Bailey, was adopted. As agreed to it is as follows:

The chair is authorized to appoint not to exceed two vice chairmen, as his judgment may determine; appoint an executive committee of not less than five nor more than seven; appoint a finance committee of not less than three nor more than five, and if in the judgment of the chair these two committees should be amalgamated into an executive committee, then the executive committee shall be composed of seven members; that if at any time the exigencies of the campaign should, in the judgment of the executive committee and the chairman require it, or if it becomes advisable to increase the number, they may select additional members, not more than one from any one state, as members of said executive committee, that in conformity with the resolution adopted by the last Democratic national convention, the members of the executive and finance committees may be selected from outside the membership of the national committee.

END OF MILITARY RULE.

Denver, July 26.—Governor Peabody to day issued a proclamation calling off military rule in Teller county and placing the Cripple Creek district in charge of civil authorities. Military expenses of the state during the past eighteen months due to strikes are said to aggregate about a million dollars.

MUST STOP GAMBLING

Bookmakers Indicted and Race Tracks Ordered to be Freed From Their Operations.

Chicago, July 26.—After indicting twenty-four bookmakers this afternoon the grand jury ordered Sheriff Barrett to take immediate steps to stop all gambling at the race tracks in Cook county. The sheriff promised he would comply with the jury's request in every detail. If the orders are carried out it means the absolute suppression of all bookmaking or gambling whatever at the tracks. With the ban against betting enforced it is believed that tracks will be compelled to close their gates, as was the case at Washington park, when the mayor prohibited all forms of betting at that track in June. The sheriff says the crusade against bookmakers begins at Hawthorne to morrow.

LOWA ASSESSMENTS.

Des Moines, July 26.—The state executive council to day announced its rail way assessments for 1904, adding a net total of $996,719 to the assessment of 1903. Of this sum the Burlington lines bear almost one-fourth, or a total of $222,553. About half the increase is due to new mileage not assessed in 1903.

THE NEW SHIRT WAIST.

New York Sun: The Peter Thompson waist is the correct thing for the woman fond of sports. It is about to put the shirt waist out of business, so far as the girl who plays tennis and golf or who sails a boat is concerned, and, indeed, it is finding great favor with those who go in for nothing more strenuous than stork yachting or holding down a rocking chair on a summer hotel piazza.

The newest fad in waists is nothing more or less than a blouse that slips over the head exactly like that worn by the naval reserves, and has a gathering string in the bottom, which ties snugly about the waist. It is built of cotton or linen duck, coarse or fine linen or of a coarse cotton material resembling sail cloth, and a short skirt always goes with it. A smart sailor collar and hand embroidered insignia on shield or sleeve give the finishing touch. This has many advantages over the shirt waist. It is quickly put on and off, stays in place and gives wonderful freedom in swinging a tennis racket or a golf club.

But, alas! It is not for the stout sister. Only the girl with svelt lines dare don it, and she does so with right good grace, for it is becoming and youthful looking. The "suits" are within the reach of all, for the young woman with a limited purse can get hers almost anywhere ready made for less than $10, while her more fortunate sister can give up $35 or more for a garment of the same cut at her tailor's.

SNY LEVEE DISTRICT.

The commissioners of the Sny 1st and levee drainage district, Messrs. H. B. Atkinson, of New Canton; A. J. Thomas, of Pleasant Hill, and H. E. Seehorn, of Fall Creek, have completed their assessment lists for the $80,000 assessment, and have been roving over the district explaining the matter to the taxpayers interested, showing the amount of their individual assessment, rectifying errors, if any should occur, and answering all questions relative to the matter. They were in Louisiana Wednesday, Rockport Thursday, and at Fall Creek and Hannibal Saturday, and if everything is perfectly satisfactory they will present their report to the court and get ready to push things.

This levy is not for the purpose of dredging any creeks. It is simply to enlarge the bed of the Sny so that the water reaching it may be carried away quickly without any overflow. The dredging of the Sny tributaries may come later, but that is not the purpose of the assessment. It is hoped that something may be accomplished before cold weather is here.

—Quincy Herald.

There should always be "an open door" to the best room in the house. The air and sunshine should be let in and the rollicking boy should occasionally be allowed to glance in to see the wonders in bric-a-brac. Let the sun fade the carpet if it will, but let it shine in.

Here are some interesting bits of philosophy: "Every nation has its traits. The Spaniard sleeps on every affair of importance; the Italian fiddles on everything; the French promises everything; the British Islanders eat upon everything; and the Americans talk upon everything."

REQUIRED GREAT PRESENCE OF MIND

Surgeon Had Just Begun Operation When Building Caught Fire—Patient Carried Through Flames.

Oakland, Cal., July 26.—While flames were licking the outside walls of the home of Mrs. L. Robinson, at Sixth and Foster streets, Dr. Louis Emerson was performing an operation on Mrs. Robinson and for ten minutes after the alarm was turned in, he pitted his surgical skill against time and fire, and succeeded in finishing his work before the flames arrived to quench the flames.

The physician arrived at the house in the morning and with the assistance of a nurse began an abdominal operation. He had opened the abdomen when the nurse smelt smoke and left the room. When she returned her assistance was required and while bandaging and wrapping the patient with the assistance of the young woman Dr. Emerson was informed of the danger surrounding him. Neither he nor his nurse could leave the room to notify the fire department and until neighbors saw the blaze no alarm was turned in. Before the flames arrived the operation was finished and the patient was taken out of the house. Smoke had entered the room and the heat was intense, but the operation was one which would permit of no delay.

The patient was unconscious and not until an hour after she had been carried through smoke and flames to a place of safety was she informed of her escape.

HEBRON SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC

Enjoyed at Dunlap Springs—Precinct Convention Will Be Held at the Church Sunday Afternoon.

Through the kindness of Mr. Stephen Dunlap the Hebron Sunday school enjoyed a picnic at Dunlap Springs Tuesday. This is an ideal place for a picnic and the school turned out in full force for the day and though a good many were kept away because of threshing and other pressing farm work, there were about 75 or 80 present and they made a happy, merry crowd, and all enjoyed themselves heartily.

The ladies had prepared abundant lunch for both dinner and supper, and it was enjoyed to the utmost. The members of the school are very grateful to the superintendent and officers for arranging the entertainment. The pastor and his family were made guests of honor, an attention which they fully appreciated.

The pastor will preach to the young people and children next Sunday. Let all strive to make our Sunday school the helpful and grand school it can be, and ought to be. This we can do by taking a thorough interest in its work and attending all its meetings.

The precinct Sunday school convention will be held at Hebron next Sunday afternoon, July 31, at 3 o'clock. The program will be as follows:

Hurrah! The Big Store Jacksonville Hurrah!!

For the Seven Last Days of July
FROM THE 23rd TO 30th
INCLUSIVE.

Join the Celebration. All Roads Lead to

The Big Store The Big Store The Big Store

We have every reason to proclaim a grand hurrah and be jubilant, as this has been the banner year of the Big Store, from basement to garret. Never before have the citizens of Jacksonville and surrounding country patronized us to such an extent, regardless of cold and rainy weather, and never before have we been so well able to supply their wants throughout the entire house. Now it is our intention, on the strength of this success and patronage to conduct a to clean out everything in the way of summer goods, remnants and broken lots, regardless of cost, so as to enable us to give our patrons from season to season nothing but new, fresh and clean merchandise, bought at the right time, in the right market, at the right prices. This does not mean that a few things will be marked down and sold cheap, but everything in the entire house will be sold at manufacturers' prices or less during this sale.

SEEING IS BELIEVING!

We mean business when we say that this is the greatest sacrifice in prices on honest, dependable, up-to-date merchandise Jacksonville has ever known. Take a day's vacation, bring your cash and visit our store. It will pay you better than going to the fair.

CHICAGO MARKETS.

The "Drovers' Journal" Monday contained the following with reference to the Chicago market.

"Packers and shippers could have used larger supplies of desirable cattle and hogs than arrived to day, and will likely have orders of fair volume to tomorrow."

was an authoritative statement made by a man well posted on the needs of buyers; "but country shippers should continue to bear in mind the fact that a common class of stock is not wanted. This may best be illustrated by the fact that each day since the strike has been in force large numbers of cattle and hogs have been carried over unsold, thus entailing much expense to the owners."

Stock can be kept at home much cheaper and the danger of loss is greatly smaller. Export buying continues of fair volume and shippers, too, show a disposition to take hold of good grades of both cattle and hogs; but country shippers should be cautious in operating, and while endeavoring to supply sufficient stock to fill orders, avoid overcrowding the market and thus throw the general situation into a depressed condition, recovery from which at this time must necessarily take many days.

WANTS A DIVORCE.

St. Louis, July 26.—Fifteen days after his incarceration in the penitentiary on his plea of guilty to an indictment of having accepted a bribe for his vote while a member of the municipal assembly, Edmund Berach was to day sued for divorce by his wife, Ida, whom he married Dec. 18, 1897. She asks for the restoration of her maiden name. She alleges many indignities, chief of which is that her husband is now a convict. On that ground alone she could secure a decree.

Harsh Criticism.

"When I was a boy in Washington," said John Philip Sousa, "there was an old Scottish musician with whom I played now and then. One afternoon I ran through for this old gentleman a new waltz of my own composition.

"Well, sir," I said when I had finished, "what do you think of that?"

"It carries me back to the home land, lad," said the old man. "It carries me back to a day when I played at an entertainment in a Scottish lunatic asylum. My instrument was the fiddle, and after I had ended my fiddle solo the head of the institution said to an aged lunatic on the front row:

"Well, Saunders, how did you like that, man?"

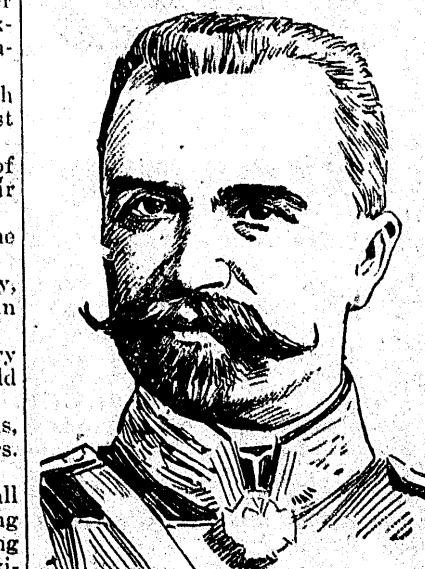

"Saunders answered, frowning at me:

"It's a gude thing we're all daft here."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Fights For the Czar.

General Vladimir Sacharoff, chief of staff to General Kuropatkin, commander of the czar's armies in the far east, is a man of great resolution and energy and is regarded by many critics as the superior in military ability of his brother, Victor V. Sacharoff, the Russian minister of war.

At the beginning of the war with Japan General Sacharoff was commander of the Fourth cavalry division.

GENERAL VLADIMIR SACHAROFF.

Later, when General Linkevitch was given chief command in Manchuria, General Sacharoff was put at the head of the First Siberian army corps, the post made vacant by Linkevitch's promotion. Most of his service, however, has been on the general staff. General Sacharoff has two younger brothers, who hold high positions on the Russian general staff.

Surprised Justice Holmes.

Justice Holmes, the junior member of the supreme court, had presented to him at an afternoon reception not long ago a lady from the west.

"I am delighted to meet you, Mr. Justice," gushed she; "delighted. I assure you, I am a great admirer of your works. 'Elsie Venner' has been my favorite book since childhood. It's magnificent! And I may add that the name of Oliver Wendell Holmes is one to conjure by in my family."—New York Herald.

A physician of Cleveland estimates that every year 7,200 persons in that city have to seek medical treatment for dog bites. The statement seems almost incredible. If only a tenth of that number are bitten each year by dogs in Cleveland it certainly warrants the adoption of drastic measures for protecting the people from rabid cuts.

Eagles Will Hold Street Fair in Decatur—New Springfield Hotel—Greene County Drainage District.

Decatur—Mayor Schilling cast the deciding vote in the council to night to allow the Eagles, a fraternal and social organization, to hold a carnival and street fair here this fall. After the vote was announced, Alderman Dillehunt declared that he will have an injunction issued to prevent the holding of the carnival. JIU JITSU AT HARVARD.

Japanese Wrestling Art to Be Taught Next Year.

The art of Jiu Jitsu will be taught at Harvard university next year, and Harvard men who can afford $100 for the privilege can learn as much about this science as they desire, says a special dispatch from Cambridge to the New York Tribune. Their instructor will be Professor Y. Yamashita of Tokyo.

Ever since the first of last winter the crimson students have been greatly interested in the art of Japanese wrestling and Jiu Jitsu through two little Japanese students, Y. Tagi and C. Yokoyama, who have appeared at regular intervals throughout the winter and wrestled for exercise on the gymnasium floor. George R. Lewis, an American boy and the roommate of Tagi, has also wrestled with them, so that undergraduates have had a good chance to see how one of their own kind succeeds with the art.

Each of these three wrestlers is enthusiastic about the sport, and it is largely through their efforts and interest that the university has been given the opportunity to have regular skilled instruction in Jiu Jitsu next year.

All the Japanese students at Harvard are interested in the coming of Professor Yamashita to Cambridge next fall, and inasmuch as all of them are youngsters who stand well up socially the new sport is being taken up as a fad by all the weather students in the university. Of the forty boys who so far have signified their intention to receive instruction in the art next year by far the greater number come from Mount Auburn street, from the region of Claverly hall and the other palatial private dormitories. This is an important feature in the introduction of any sport at Harvard, to have it immediately adopted by the most influential and leading men.

WEEK HAS BEEN MOST FAVORABLE

For Growing Crops—Oats Harvest in Full Swing—Corn Is Looking Fine.

The finest week for crops reported this season was the seven day period ending last Monday. The weather throughout the entire state was just the thing for corn and for the harvest of hay, oats and other grains now ripe. The weekly bulletin of the weather bureau for Illinois issued Tuesday morning is certainly optimistic and gives a most glowing account of farm conditions in the state.

The bulletin says: The weather conditions have been highly favorable for crop development and farming operations during the week, decidedly the most favorable of the season. High temperatures prevailed the first part and more moderate temperatures the latter part of the week. While the rainfall was deficient, only scattered showers falling, sufficient moisture was conserved from the previous week to supply generally the requirement of vegetation.

Corn made rapid growth and is mostly laid by. The plant is lustrous and shows deep color. Many fields are now in tassel.

The cutting of oats will be in active operation in the northern district during the ensuing week; the work is practically finished in the southern and central districts, and threshing has been done, with satisfactory output. Many complaints are made of injury by rust.

Wheat, rye and barley are in the shock. Considerable wheat has been threshed during the week under very favorable conditions, and an average yield of good quality has resulted.

Excellent curing weather prevailed and a large quantity of hay has been saved in fine condition. Reports indicate a yield below average, but of superior quality. Pastures are generally good, but rains would improve conditions in some localities.

Gardens are yielding bountiful, and the outlook for potatoes is promising. Sweet corn is ripe and is producing abundantly.

Plums, blackberries and raspberries are ripe. Grapes continue promising. Apples are dropping at a rapid rate, and some orchards are already bare. Central district reports are as follows:

Christian county, Radford—Corn growing rapidly and looks well; hay nearly cut; is good yield and of good quality; oats are being harvested and will be light crop, but the quality of grain is good; potatoes better than average; pastures fine; no threshing done yet.—T. J. Radford.

DeWitt, Wapella—Week favorable for work; hay harvest about done and crop secured in good condition; berry crop fair and just beginning to ripen; corn doing well; is now tasseling; nights rather cool for corn latter part of week; oats fair crop, but damaged some by rust.—A. D. Metz.

Fayette, St. Peter—Wheat all in stack; oats in shock; hay in full progress with three-fourths in stack; yield and quality of hay very satisfactory and but little damage done by rains; corn doing nicely; more rain has fallen in other portions of the county.—Adolph Ambuehl.

Greene, Roodhouse—Weather much better than during preceding week, and farmers have made good progress with threshing and haying; corn is doing well; wheat yields well from the thresher; oats promise good yield; pastures continue good; berries are plentiful and of good quality; good prospect for peach crop; weather fair, but nights very cool latter part of week.—William C. Roodhouse.

Jasper, Falmouth—Warm weather favorable to corn, which promises a big crop; oats and hay now being harvested with fair yield.—T. N. Wicoff.

Logan, Lincoln—First part of week very warm and latter part cool; corn has made rapid growth, but needs rain now; early oats are all cut, and late fields are ready, but are badly damaged by rust; some wheat threshed; yield fair and quality good; hay light crop, but quality good except where damaged by rain in the making.—H. P. Purvine.

Mason, Poplar City—Weather hot first of week; dry and cool latter part; oats harvest in progress, yield medium to poor; timothy hay very poor yield; corn shows good color, but needs rain now as ears are beginning to form; field peas doing well; sweet potatoes fine.—H. S. Hagan.

Monard, Tallula—Weather favorable for farm work and for growth of corn; threshing of wheat and oats in progress; grain of good quality; returns not yet sufficient to estimate general yield.—N. H. Green.

Pike, Pearl—Weather warm and favorable for work; corn in good condition and growing nicely; haying and the stacking and threshing of grain begun; the first reports from threshers indicate only fair yield of wheat; oat crop good; much hay ready to cut; potatoes better than average.—C. A. Spaulding.

Tazewell, Washington—Corn looks well and is growing rapidly; some oats harvested and prospect for good crop; wheat threshed, yield light, quality good; hay all secured in good condition, yield not as large as last year; pastures good; all stock in good condition.—F. L. Cooper.

Vermilion, Ridge Farm—Favorable weather for work; oats about half harvested and indicate average yield; corn doing well, but is ten days late, and is just beginning to tassel; potatoes and vegetables good.—W. M. Bines.

ASPINWALL HAS RESIGNED.

Springfield News: Governor Yates Tuesday announced the appointment of Fred Sterling, of Rockford, as a member of the board of managers of the Pontiac reformatory, vice Homer Aspinwall, resigned. Mr. Aspinwall is going to London to be associated with his brother-in-law, a Keeley institute. Henry Roth, of North Chicago, is appointed justice of the peace, vice E. C. Hamberger, deceased. On recommendation of the state's attorney the governor Tuesday pardoned Louis Plowman from the Pontiac reformatory, to which he was sentenced last November from Chicago for larceny.

POLITICS IN SANGAMON.

Sangamon county seems to be having difficulty in finding candidates for the office of probate judge. A special election has been called by Governor Yates and the two Republican factions in the county each nominated a candidate and both of the nominees subsequently resigned. Mr. Scholes, who was nominated by the faction represented by Dr. Wheeler, was the first to decline to run and Dr. Wheeler announced at the time that his following would support the nominee of the faction represented by Richard Sullivan. James R. Orr was the nominee of this faction and a few days ago he refused to run and his law partner, Warren Lewis, was named by Mr. Sullivan to fill the vacancy on the ticket.

The Democrats are also having their troubles in Sangamon county. L. G. Metcalf, who was recently elected chairman of the county central committee, has refused to serve and a new selection will have to be made.

HELD RESPONSIBLE.

Chicago, July 26.—Five men were tonight declared by the coroner's jury to be criminally responsible for the railroad disaster at Glenwood, Ill., July 13, in which eighteen persons were killed and many injured. This verdict held to the grand jury a train dispatcher and the entire crew of the freight train that blocked the track and caused the wreck. Four already have been arrested, while the fifth, the engineer, is a fugitive. The finding also censured the Chicago & Eastern Illinois for using antiquated coaches and working its employees beyond their endurance.

MATHENY & LLOYD.

(By Associated Press)

Chicago, July 26.—Wheat—Trade was mainly local and on professional orders. The close showed July up a cent and September 1/2 cent higher. The market inclined to weakness at the start, influenced chiefly by unresponsive cables and heavy receipts in the southwest. Local longs sold with considerable freedom and short selling was more in evidence, but at the decline, shorts came in freely on the belief that the British consols and adverse foreign crop conditions. Many early sellers turned buyers and the market acted overboard.

Corn—There was a light local trade, the market ruling very slow in the first hour. The feeling was, however, rather firm and the close showed September 1/2 cent higher. Receipts were liberal and weather, prospects and prospective, were favorable, but wheat and oats were strong and corn was inclined to sympathize. The government crop bulletin reported corn doing well in all sections.

Oats—Oats were slow early and receded, but later in the day they were active and advanced 1/2 cent. Trade was influenced by the action in wheat and toward the last by reports of rust in the west and disappointing yields in Illinois.

HOGS—Receipts, 2,000.

FINANCIAL NEWS.

New York, July 26.—Speculative confidence was sensibly shaken by the action of day's stock market, which gave the first indications of urgent liquidation since the recent rise was inaugurated. The greatest activity throughout the day was during the period of declines. On occasional rallies there were quick relapses into dullness. Lightning of loans to day had the effect of arousing a suspicion that accumulators were finding difficulty in distributing their holdings to advantage. There was disappointment also at the small demand for stocks met at declines. Widespread influence was exerted both in the wheat and stock markets by an altered estimate of the yield of only 500,000 bushels for the total wheat crop. A sudden break in Northern Securities on the curb produced the weakest period on the stock exchange. Whispers of doubt continued to be circulated concerning the maintenance of the dividend on Erie first preferred. More attention was given to the troubled outlook in the labor world. Closing quotations: Money on call very easy at 1 per cent; closing bid at 3/4; offered at 1. Time money easy; sixty days at 3 1/2; ninety days at 3 1/2; six months at 3 3/4 to 3 1/2 per cent. Prime paper at 3 1/4 to 3 1/2.

CURED OF CHRONIC DIARRHOEA AFTER TEN YEARS' OF SUFFERING.

"I wish to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mrs. Mattie Burge, of Martinsville, Va. "I suffered from chronic diarrhoea for ten years and during that time tried various medicines without obtaining any permanent relief. Last summer one of my children was taken with cholera morbus and I procured a bottle of this remedy. Only two doses were required to give her entire relief. I then decided to try the medicine myself, and did not use all of one bottle before I was well and I have never since been troubled with that complaint. One cannot say too much in favor of that wonderful medicine." This remedy is for sale by all leading druggists.

A LITTLE NONSENSE.

Story of a Newsboy Who Wanted to Be Obligated With a Match.

A small newsboy who had made the find of a half finished cigar on the pavement stepped into a small shop to obtain a match.

"Say, give us a match, will you?" he asked of the woman behind the counter.

"We don't give matches; we sell them," she replied.

"How much?"

"A cent a box."

One dirty hand went into his pocket, brought out a penny and placed it on the counter.

"Give me a box."

The box was purchased. With a grave air the small boy took it, drew out a match, struck a light with all the grace possible and puffed energetically upon the discarded cigar stub. Then, leaning confidentially across the counter, he extended the box of matches to the woman and said:

"Say, you just take this box of matches, will you, and put it in some place where you can lay hands on it easy, and when some other gentleman steps in and asks for a light don't sell him a match; give him one on me." And with a lordly nod the young American made his way back to the street.—Lippincott's Magazine.

Wifely Consideration.

She—I think you'd better come with me to choose my new ring, dear.

He—But I thought you wanted to choose it yourself?

She—So I did, but I'm afraid I can't afford it.

Helpful Suggestion.

"So?" hoarsely sighed Hector Montmorency. "So? You spurn me? And I must go forth, go out into the bitter world, with despair and unutterable woe written on my face! What is left for me to do?"

Her womanly sympathy, her feminine willingness to offer a suggestion that might be of avail, manifested itself.

"You might go into a dime museum as the man with the postal card face," she murmured.—New York Life.

Accomplished His Purpose.

Trickey—It's so hard to convince some people. There is Lamb, now. I tried my best to convince him that poker was not a game of chance, but it was no use. Finally I got him to sit down and play for a couple of hours.

King—And then?

Trickey—When we quit I had all the money he brought with him. But I had convinced him. That was the main thing.—Boston Transcript.

Heard His Mama Say.

"What is this?" asked the teacher, pointing to the island of Cuba on the map.

"I dunno, ma'am," replied the boy.

"Didn't you ever hear your mama say what we got from Spain?"

"Yes'm; olives."—Yonkers Statesman.

Familiar With Fashion's Whims.

"We should aim to be honestly straightforward all our lives," asserted the lecturer at the women's club.

"But the straight front may go out of style in another season," interrupted an attentive listener.

Perplexed, the lecturer waited for the confusion to cease.

Not Neglected.

"The art of letter writing is sadly neglected nowadays," said the man of literary taste.

"That remark," said his more practical friend, "shows that you haven't a son at college who is applying himself to showing you why his allowance ought to be increased."—Washington Star.

A Sure Way.

"What was it Franklin said? 'If you'd have a thing well done'?"

"Tell your cook you like it rare," interrupted Subbubs.—Philadelphia Press.

DEATH RECORD

SMITH.

Mrs. Joseph S. Smith, residing northwest of the city, passed away Tuesday afternoon at 3:45 o'clock.

Mrs. Smith, whose maiden name was Paulina Fernandes, had been ill for many months and death came as a relief to her sufferings. She was born in Jacksonville thirty-eight years ago, and was married April 25, 1888, to Joseph Smith, who survives her. She is also survived by her mother, Mrs. Maria Fernandes, of this city, and by one brother, Daniel Fernandes, and one sister, Carrie Fernandes, both residents of this city.

She was a member of the Portuguese Presbyterian church and the funeral will be conducted from that church this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Interment will be in Jacksonville cemetery.

WILSON.

Henry Clay Wilson died at his home at North Grand avenue and First street, in Springfield, Monday evening at 6 o'clock. He is survived by his wife, three sons, Arthur B., John W. and Franklin Wilson, and three daughters, Mrs. Ella Keen, of New Berlin; Mrs. Lillie Welsh, of Virginia; and Miss Carrie B. Wilson, of Springfield. He also leaves a brother, Dr. John F. Wilson, of Tallula, and two sisters, Mrs. Mary J. Whitte, of Jacksonville, and Mrs. Elizabeth Curt, of Nebraska, Kans. Mr. Wilson was born in Menard county Jan. 16, 1837. After his marriage with Miss Sarah Ann Lloyd, which occurred at St. Louis Aug. 27, 1859, he lived on a farm in Cass county for three years. He served through three years of the civil war with the 114th Illinois volunteers in Company F. He was a prisoner at Andersonville for over five months. He participated in many of the great battles of the war. After returning from the war he resided in Tallula and Rock Creek, going to Springfield eight years ago. He engaged in the grocery business, but was obliged to abandon it on account of failing health.

BIG SALVAGE IN LITCHFIELD WRECK.

Decatur Herald: At the Wabash shops yesterday the work of sorting the iron saved from the passenger cars burned at Litchfield was commenced. There is a considerable salvage in that iron work and much of it, with very little labor, is fully as serviceable as when it was first made. The wheels under the passenger cars will average nearly $50 each and all of them can be used again. The wheels beneath one of the burned C. H. & D. cars were paper filled and even they will be practically new when the cases are re-filled. From Wabash cars that were constructed after standard patterns all of the iron work can be straightened and used again. An inexperienced person viewing the wreckage would perhaps say that the iron work was nothing but scrap, but the man who has had experience in similar situations knows that the salvage is a big item.

BANK SUED.

Quincy, July 26.—The Ricker National bank is made defendant in two suits for $25,000 each, in cases filed in the circuit clerk's office late Saturday afternoon. One suit is in assumption and the other for action on the case. The titles of the cases are: Albertus Fry vs. Ricker National bank. Attorneys Govert, Pope and Govert represent the plaintiff. They would say nothing about the case.

L. E. Timmons, who represents the bank, said that he understood the suits were brought by Fry, who alleged that he bought cattle from an agent of the bank at Dodge City, Kan., and gave for the same his notes aggregating $26,000. The notes have been paid, but the plaintiff alleges, the cattle were not as represented.

MATRIMONIAL

REDDING-MOORE.

The Chicago Inter-Ocean of Tuesday contains an account of the marriage of Robert Redding, editor of the Terre Haute Sun, to Miss Tennie Moore, at Waukegan, Ill., by Justice James Murrie, in his office in that city. The notice states that the wedding was to have taken place at Lake Bluff next week and was looked forward to as an event of considerable importance by the resorters there. The couple, however, stole a march on their friends and went to Waukegan, where they were quietly married.

Mr. Redding formerly lived in this city, where, up to something over a year ago, he was employed on the Journal in the mechanical department. The bride also is a former resident of this city, having been employed at the Deaf and Dumb institution.

SHEPPARD-NICKOLAS.

George E. Sheppard and Miss Etta Nickolas, both of Franklin, were married Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock at the Centenary church parsonage, by the pastor, Rev. A. L. T. Ewert. The groom is a farmer and the newly married couple will reside on a farm near Franklin.

CANNON TO SPEAK.

Washington, July 26.—"Uncle Joe" Cannon, speaker of the house of representatives, is to be made a feature of the national campaign. He will make speeches in all the close states including Wisconsin, where he will plead with the two Republican factions to bury their differences. Chairman Cortelyou of the national committee wanted Mr. Cannon badly, but the latter had placed himself at the disposal of the congressional campaign committee. Chairman Babcock, who has charge of the congressional canvass, has arranged a tour for the speaker, embracing forty congressional districts regarded as uncertain. However, Mr. Cannon will say a good word for the presidential ticket in all these places.

HORSEMEN ARE INTERESTED

Realize That Autos Have Come to Stay and Discuss Best Way to Get Animals Used to Them—The State Law.

Since the introduction of so many automobiles in this city, several prominent horsemen have been discussing ways and means of accustoming their horses to them without accident or mishap.

Several horse dealers were discussing the matter Tuesday any they were especially solicitous when meeting automobiles near a sharp turn in the road. One of the gentlemen suggested that they unite in a petition to the drivers of automobiles to agree upon some code of signals for use more especially on country roads. For instance, a certain number of toots of the horn to indicate a certain course as when approaching a turn in the road with a high hedge on one side obscuring the view. A warning of this character would give the driver of a horse time to prepare for meeting the auto and put him on his guard at a time when without some such signal he would come upon the machine very unexpectedly. People generally recognize that the automobile has come to stay and until horses become accustomed to them a little care will perhaps avert some serious accidents.

The following regarding the state law regulating the speed of automobiles is taken from a recent issue of the Decatur Review:

"There is a state law regulating the speed of automobiles upon city streets as well as country roads. A part of this law was published some time ago, but it seems it was overlooked by automobile owners.

"There is a request now from several country people that the law be published again for the information of those who run automobiles in the country.

"The law was passed by the legislature that met in 1903. Two sections are here presented. Note particularly the second section, which says that an automobile must be brought to a stop whenever a horse is frightened by its approach. The law is:

FIFTEEN MILES AN HOUR ONLY.

"Section 1. RUN ON A BANK.

Lancaster, Ohio, July 26.—Owing to rumors of loss of money in stock speculations a small run was made on the Lancaster bank yesterday, but the officers heaped their counter with money and met every demand. The president of the bank jumped into an automobile and going to Columbus returned with $50,000. The bank was kept open until 6 p. m. to pay depositors. The rumors started are unfounded and the bank is entirely solvent. The bank has a surplus of over $40,000. The reports are supposed to have arisen from idle gossip.

ELKS DAY AT THE FAIR.

St. Louis, July 26.—Elks day at the exposition to day was one of the biggest days yet celebrated at the fair. Thousands of Elks are arriving from all parts of the country and they will be the honored guests of the fair company. The festivities arranged in their honor include some of the most unique and splendid events which the world's fair has yet seen. First in importance was the great Elks parade at 11 a. m. At 1 p. m. a unique and fantastic pageant made up of strange people and curious animals from the Pike marched through the fair grounds. The guests were entertained in the morning at the Iowa building, two addresses being made by the Hon. Charles E. Fickett, of Iowa, past grand exalted ruler, and Fred Robinson, of Iowa, prominent in Elks circles. After these addresses the Elks moved over to the Temple of Fraternity, where the other festivities occurred.

FOUND GREEN DIAMOND.

Philadelphia Record: Considerable interest, writes a correspondent, has been aroused in Johannesburg by the discovery on a mining property at Klerksdrop of a green diamond of about three-quarters carat. The gem had slipped into a crevice in the iron plates of the crushing mill and was found during the dismantling of the mill to make room for a new stamp battery.

In 1883 over seventy similarly colored diamonds were found upon the same property. They had all slipped between the dies and escaped destruction. It is conjectured that many other green stones not crushed out of existence. For the first time evidence that date forward the Klerksdrop G and D company propose to resume operations on this particular ground, which contains both gold and diamonds, and the prospects of unearthing more of these green gems the being eagerly watched from the Rand.
